

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

AMRJ is a semi-annually both printed and online open access scholarly journal. It publishes blind peer reviewed high quality expert analyses, reviews, case studies, and applied research relating to all disciplines of business management with the aim of promoting the understanding of various aspects of business management among the researchers and practitioners. AMRJ is a multidisciplinary journal, rooted in business management, bridging the gap between practitioners and researchers by providing a combined platform for their work. AMRJ is published by the Society of Asian Management Research (SAMR). All submissions to the journal must conform to the highest standards of intellectual rigour and scrupulousness.

The following points give authors a brief overview to focus on manuscript submission and review process.

- J Paper submitted should be original and not under consideration for publication at another journal.
- J All manuscripts should be submitted electronically.
- J Files should be submitted in Microsoft Word format.
- J Papers should follow the guidelines and scope of the journal otherwise will be returned to authors without being reviewed.

KEY POINTS

- J Once the paper is submitted it will be acknowledged via email upon receipt.
- J Editorial decision will be made within 20 days approximately.
- J Each paper is reviewed by at least two reviewers.
- J Editors' decision along with reviewers' comments will be forwarded to corresponding author as quickly as possible.
- J Our policy is to strive to make a final publication decision after one or two revisions, so authors will have to make revision as per reviews.
- J We appreciate you for considering the Asian Management Research Journal as a publication.
- J We are looking forward to review your research. Thank You!

MANUSCRIPT REQUIREMENTS

Please prepare your manuscript by keeping in view the following guidelines:

Format	All files of the manuscript should be submitted as Word Documents (doc or docx file). The files in pdf version are not acceptable.
Length of Manuscript	All submitted manuscript should have a length of 5000-8000 words including references.
Languages	It is the discretion of author(s) to use either American or British English. However, please do not mix both in a single manuscript. Please use present tense as much as possible. Do not write: Jones (2011) stated that.... Do write: Jones (2011) states that.... Please do not use passive voice except in the methodology section. It is recommended that before making the final submission to the journal, ask two of your colleagues to review your article. This will help you to remove any possible grammatical and other errors in the paper. You can express thanks to your colleagues in acknowledgement on the title page.
Title of Manuscript	Title of the manuscript should not exceed 14 words.

Files	Please submit two separate files. One should be named as Title Page and other should be named as Anonymised Document. Title Page should contain: Title of the manuscript Name(s) of author(s) and affiliation(s). Contact Details of the author(s). Acknowledgement The Anonymised Documents should not contain any information about the author or its institute as this file will be sent out for the blind review. The manuscript can be rejected if this file contains any information about the author.
Abstract	Each manuscript should contain an abstract of 200-250 words. This abstract should be placed immediately after the title. The author(s) should provide at least six keywords after the abstract.
Classification	Please mention the classification of your manuscript after keywords as: Research paper Conceptual Paper Case Study Technical Paper Viewpoint General Review
Style of the Paper	There should be one inch margin at the each side of the paper. Please use Times New Roman font style with 12 point font size. Please make all the paragraphs justified. The first line of each paragraph should 0.25” indented except the first paragraph after heading with single line space. Please number all the pages at the centre bottom of the paper.
Footnotes/Endnotes	Please use Footnotes/Endnotes if they are absolutely necessary, otherwise avoid them.
Heading	The authors should use concise headings with understandable hierarchy of heading. The following format should be followed for heading: HEADING 1 Heading 2 Heading 3 1.1.1.4.Heading 4
Figures	All figures (Charts, diagrams, line drawing, screenshots and photographic images) should be of high quality, legible and number consecutively. All the figures should be placed in the manuscript and should not be submitted as a separate file.
Tables	Tables should be typed and placed inside the manuscript. Tables in the form of image are not acceptable. All the tables should be labelled and numbered consecutively. The explanation of any superscript or asterisk should be given at the end of the table as footnote to the table. There should be no vertical lines in the tables.

References	References should be in the APA style and author(s) should check them carefully in terms of their completeness, accuracy and consistency. The accuracy of references rests solely with the author(s). Author(s) should cite the references in text: (Jones, 2011), for two authors (Jones & Adam, 2010). For 3 or up to 6 authors use the names of all authors for citing the first time in the manuscript (Jones, Adam & Pitman, 2009); for subsequent citations cite (Jones et al., 2009). For more than 6 authors for first and subsequent citations use (Akhtar et al., 2009). For the reference of website, please cite the website reference as footnote. At the end of the manuscript a reference list in alphabetical order should be provided. The example of references are given below:
Journal Articles	Bolino, C. M. (1999). Citizenship and impression management: good soldiers or good actors? Academy of Management Journal , 24(1), 82-98. Kacmar K. M., & Carlson, S. D. (1999). Effectiveness of impression management. Journal of Applied Social Psychology , 29(6), 1293-1315.
Books	Goffman, E. (1959). The presentation of self in everyday life . Garden City, NJ: Doubleday Anchor.
Books Chapters	Hommel, U. (2010). Value-based motives for corporate risk management. In M. Frenkel, U. Hommel, & M. Rudolf (Eds.), Risk Management: Challenge & Opportunity (2nd ed., pp. 455-478). New Delhi, India: Springer.
Conference Proceedings	Akhtar, S. (2007). Pakistan: Changing risk management paradigm - perspective of the regulator. ACCA Conference - CFOs: The Opportunities and Challenges Ahead , (p. 8). Karachi.
Working Papers	Allen, F., & Santomero, A. M. (1996). The theory of financial intermediation. Working Paper . University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia: Financial Institutions Center, The Wharton School.

Submit your manuscript in electronic format (.doc and .docx only).

E-mail: faisal.mahmood@lbs.uol.edu.pk; Imran.hameed@lbs.uol.edu.pk; faisal.qadeer@lbs.uol.edu.pk

For further detail please visit <http://sites2.uol.edu.pk/samr/current-issue.php>